is what we all take to capture the fond but elusive memory of days gone by. Tomorrow, next year or in years to come a new look at your LE DIABLE BLEU can help to complete moments of pensive reflection on the days spent here at "fair Dillard." The pages following are meant to keep alive that memory we all cherish and helped to make.

DEDICATION

This book is respectfully dedicated to the "steel-true" and "blade-straight" of you here at D. U., possessed of an unquenchable spirit, and an insatiable desire to improve yourselves for the good of all. Its pages will keep for you some of the hours you spent here, working, thinking and growing; it is further dedicated to those of you for whom the memory of despairing moments here set aglow the beginning sparks of an awakened continuance.

At the beginning of the spring semester, Dillard welcomed its first Edgar B. Stern University Professor, Dr. Lester B. Granger who recently retired as executive director of the National Urban League.

The Stern professorship was set up to make possible the addition of teachers, artists and scholars of outstanding merit to the university faculty on a visiting basis.

HOMEcoming WEEK A LA 1961

THE ROARING PIGSKIN TWENTIES

"The Roaring Pigskin Twenties" turned out full of last minute decorating, last minute shake babies, and Miss Dillard and her court having to be lifted onto the Queen's float for lack of steps. But that was the roar of it all.

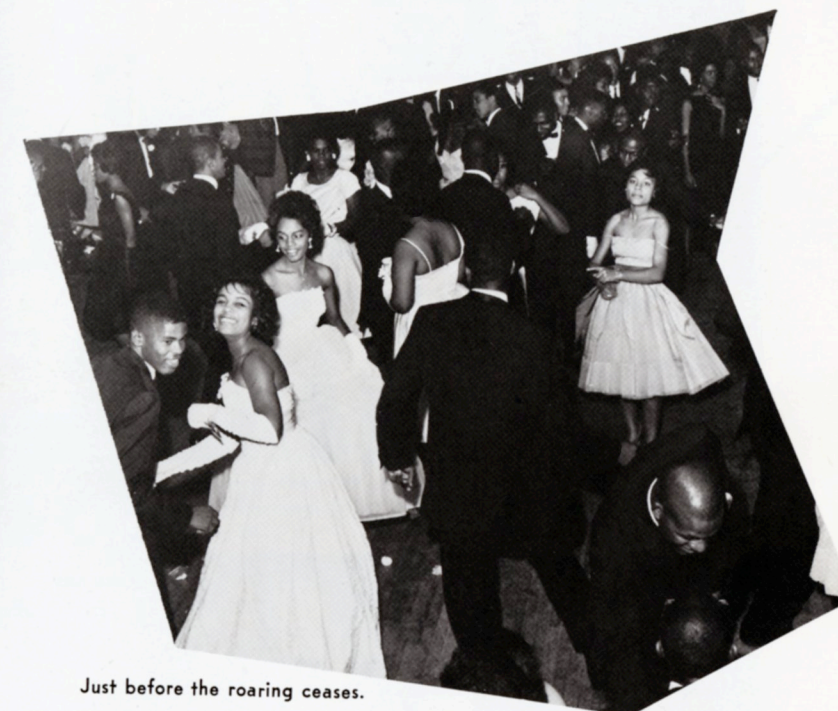

The Sophomores showed up with a 1900 Model "T" which they hoisted onto their float. Much to their dismay, the tires couldn't stand the car and half the Sophomore class too. They went "klaplooe" in the middle of the parade, but that was the roar of it all.

The big game after the parade was a Blue Devil triumph over Texas College and the Ball was roaring good to everybody as the band played on. We hear that Henson Hall almost wasn't decorated because the committee went wild when The Chairman, Cedric Hinson, showed up wearing a zoot suit.

This year Founders' Day was sunny and the speaker was Robert Weaver. At the close of the ceremonies, our new Library was opened to everybody. We don't suppose it will ever be that crowded again.

Just before the roaring ceases.

Robert Weaver was here.

Our Library will never be this crowded again.

Underneath them all, there's a Texas College man.

With a 4-3-1 record for the season, the Blue Devils were runners-up in conference competition. They began by whipping Alabama State. A subsequent defeat by the Southern Jaguars was the turning point of the season with the Devils losing the services of Lee, Giles, Hayes and Madise. To add to the loses, Uncle Sam drafted the first string center, Cooley. However, they still made fine showings against Alabama A&M, Bishop and Clark Colleges, and completely overwhelmed Fisk University and Texas College. At the Turkey Day Classic, the Devils overpowered Philander Smith of Arkansas.

Seniors who played their last games included: Kennedy-HB, Polk-FB, Lee-G, Cunningham-T Jones (All Conference End), and Scott-G.

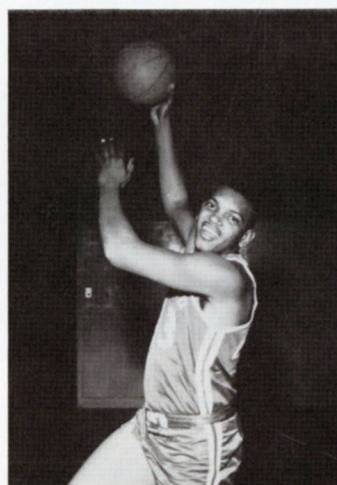

A Houston-Tillotson man is outclassed.

Kenneth Nevels

On you

Carl runs the score to 100.

The Blue Devils captured their fifth Gulf Coast Athletic Conference basketball championship. Leaving after four years of praiseworthy performances on the court were Alton Gill, Carl McCollum, Arnold Nevels (who racked up a total of 484 points during this time) and Kenneth Nevels (with 575 points). In Kenneth's last game at home, he scored 43 and broke the school's scoring record set by Ralph Laster, '61

This year's tough schedule included games with Prairie View, Clark and Southern. The team finished the season with an 18-7 record.

D. U. also boasted the fine playing of such underclassmen as center Louis Andrews and guard Jerry Watts.

CHEERLEADERS

Standing: Sandra Clem. Seated: Mafrohiah Harrison, Barbara Antoine, Rosalyn Yette.

With arms skyward and a rousing D.U. cheer on their lips, the "Big Four" sing out with the help of the crowds or alone to hail the efforts of the Blue Devils on the grid-iron. Sometimes it's hard to tell what kind of stuff their spirit is made of until you've sat next to one in the stands who happens also to be a class Queen and wonder whether she'll toss her new hat into the crowd; or until you see tears, and a megaphone go crashing to the ground when the din is a little below par. Well, here's hats off and din up to you Gang!

Don't just stand there Honey Chile, do something.

It's a cinch she ain't never hear tell of them new reducin' pills.

It's twistin' time in Dogpatch.

No wonder the Dogpatch General Store was sold outa costumes.

P.S. Hear tell they made a heap at the Dance that night

We didn't even dress up fancy like and won.

Two lost souls.

Like I said, "They were all sold outa pants by the time I showed up."

GREEKS

It's difficult to understand how tone deaf howlers can be transformed into Nightingales with audiences just upon becoming Greeks. Crossing the burning sands must strike songs into their hearts. Whatever the case, Greeks on campus don't just sing and put on shows at Probation Week. The members of the Greek letter organizations work together to relate their doings to the total community in which they operate. Spurred on by a fraternal spirit they work among themselves and with others to help promote scholarship, loyalty, togetherness, and action.

Bruce Robinson,
President, (First Semester)

A more familiar arrangement of the council members at a meeting time other than Yearbook Pix Day would find them engaged in the more active business of preparing for Homecoming activities early in the session, or later planning for the USNSA regional conference held on our campus, or council meeting absenteeism, or maybe just the business of selling peanuts at a football game. Bruce Robinson, the "New Frontier" president, taking advantage of an early graduation opportunity served at the reins only one semester. The new prexy, William Hayes, is now seated at the head of the conference table.

The council seeks to discover new ways by which it may better represent the student body in promoting its welfare and establishing a more wholesome relationship among faculty, administration and students.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

HAYWARD HENRY	President
MARY JOANN TAYLOR	Vice President
CAROLYN NICHOLAS	Secretary

The BSU seeks to unite those students motivated toward establishing a medium through which their spiritual roles may be examined. These students engaged mainly in discussions whereby everyone was able to actively take part and also incorporated additional addresses from resource persons. They were represented at the National Baptist Student Union Retreat as a further means of helping to discover new ideas from other BSU members.

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

GLORIA NELSON	President
OMMIE NELMS	Vice President
HARRIET REED	Secretary

The Methodist students of the University have organized to co-ordinate their efforts to further develop a better understanding of their spiritual concern, and identify themselves with effective ways of promoting religion in higher education. They participated in the annual MSM Conference and the State Council Meeting and sponsored various discussions, such as "The Church's Task" and "Inquiry into Faith"

ARCHIE ALLEN	President
MARY HICKS	Secretary
GLORIA NELSON	Treasurer

The University Christian Council is the newly organized co-ordinating body of the religious clubs on campus, and is made up of the clubs' presidents. Its function is to work to bring a greater measure of oneness among the groups they represent. In the council's bi-monthly meetings various discussions are carried on and such challenging films as "The Pumpkin Coach" and "The Informer" were sponsored by the UCC. In January and April the group also sponsored two retreats.

UNIVERSITY CHRISTIAN COUNCIL

MARY HICKS	President
ARTHER LEARY	Vice President
FRANCES BASTIAN	Recording Secretary
SHIRLEY DUMAS	Corresponding Secretary

The Newman Club is made up of Catholic students of the University who are seeking to unite in fostering their common spiritual interests. Some of its activities for the year included representation at the Regional Executive Meeting, presentation of a chapel program, arranging discussion groups and panels, participating in various communion-breakfast services and observing annual Cardinal Newman Week.

NEWMAN CLUB

YWCA

GAIL MOORE	President
BARBARA HAMILTON	Vice President
CARRIE DELORES FRAZIER	Secretary

The Young Women's Christian Association is one of the most active organizations on campus and seeks to provide a functional avenue by which a more creative and meaningful approach toward spiritual growth can be effectuated. They engaged in such activities as pop-corn forums, chat and chew sessions with guest resource persons, sponsoring challenging movie-discussion hours, and sponsoring representatives to the YWCA Conference.

BOARD OF USHERS

LAURA BROWN	President
SAMUEL SEPEKU	Vice President
BETTY JACKSON	Secretary

Members: Otto Duncan, Patrick Jones, Edward Wells, Agnes Brazile, Phillip Russ, Sandra Jackson, Gertte Hughes, Aloma Orticke, Beverly Jackson, Betty Jackson, Samuel Sepeku, Laura Brown.

The Board of Ushers is composed of a group of students who assist with all chapel services and Lyceum presentations. They also worked as a team in the voter registration drive.

ISMAIL MAKKIEH	President
CLAUDE SMITH	Vice President
GERTTE HUGHES	Secretary

Interested in cultivating more aware students with respect to the international scope of their thinking and understanding, the International Relations Club endeavors to sponsor such activities as will be meaningful to this end. This session the IRC presented chapel programs celebrating Human Rights Day and the 13th Anniversary of the United Nations. It sponsored addresses on such pertinent topics as "The Berlin Crises" and "Nigerian Independence" and arranged a fellowship social honoring foreign students. The club also presented movies and discussions about various foreign countries.

The Busecon Society is a social organization of Business Administration and Economics majors. Its members are interested in finding new outlets for discovering challenging ways which will help further their professional growth. The society is composed of both students and teachers who also seek to make community business, class room business.

BUSECON SOCIETY

HARTZELL HALL DORMITORY COUNCIL

WILLIAM GRAY	President
GEORGE RAY	Vice President
MARION BAKER	Secretary

That dormitory life can be fun is what some of us think some of the time; that the dormitory is sometimes host to Lucifer himself is what others of us think at other times. What all of us think all of the time is that our sojourn in the dormitories ought to be as smooth as possible, void of too many regulations and broken water fountains and supplied with showers having hot water all day. The objective of the council of Hartzell Hall is to insure the attempt of a responsible co-ordinated effort toward achieving this enjoyable dorm living.

WILLIAMS HALL DORMITORY COUNCIL

ORA L. HOOD	President
LELA SMITH	Vice President
BRENDA M. HATCHER	Secretary

In Williams Hall, it has been rumored that the council has been approached concerning the possibility of trying to get stained glass windows for the main lounge. There is probably little truth in it, however, and the council, representative of a cross-section of Sophomore, Junior and Senior women, is more concerned with promoting an overall atmosphere of harmonious co-existence, complete with the addition of another telephone to help better spread the word.

CEDRIC HINSON	President
EUGENE HARRISON	Vice President
ARTHEREEN HAWKINS	Secretary

When the strains of "Would you Rather be a Colonel with an Eagle on your Shoulder, or a Private with a Chicken on your Knee" can be heard belowed forth by some shower-taking tenor the Camphor Hall dorm council, in the interest of all, is pledged not to see that he is recommended to the Music Department, but that the showers are all sound-proofed. However, reserving such plans for the Conrad Hilton, the immediate concern of generating a wholesome attitude of co-operation is the primary interest of this organization.

CAMPHOR HALL DORMITORY COUNCIL

STRAIGHT HALL DORMITORY COUNCIL

DOROTHY TALLEY	President
ROSETTA HUNT	Vice President
THERESA EARTHLY	Secretary

In Straight Hall, where most of the Freshman women are housed, the old business of providing a channel for the expression of their wishes to help make residence more palatable is the job of these "six women in black." They are pledged to help keep the overall atmosphere smog-free so that Straight will never again be the target of such English compositions as "The White Dungeon"

SANTA FILOMENA CLUB

JACQUELINE YARN	President
MARIE CHRETIEN	Vice President
NETTYE R. GORDON	Recording Secretary
CLOTILDA EPHRIAM	Financial Secretary

The Santa Filomena Club, composed solely of student nurses of the University, aims at encouraging professional and social oneness among these individuals. It seeks to make available the opportunities for further growth through affiliation with other such organizations and to promote among its members the adoption of such attitudes, the formation of such values and the cultivating of such skills as will prepare them to become competent in all areas of their future endeavors.

STUDENT NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION

CAROLYN HARRISON	President
JOAN JAMES	Vice President
GAIL ORTICKE	Recording Secretary
WILLIE ETTA MERRICK	Financial Secretary

The Student National Education Association recognizes the need for developing in those planning to enter the teaching profession a healthy attitude toward it by helping them to comprehend its scope and importance. It seeks to broaden the capabilities of sincere, persevering, future teachers by providing them with practical experience. This organization helps its members to develop a working comprehension of the program, policies and codes of the National Education Association.

DEBATING GUILD

CLAUDE SMITH
DONALD PRITCHETT
RUFFIN LEBRANE
CLEMENS TIBARZARWA

The Dillard Debating Guild is made up of a few students whose desire it is to develop their potential in the area of argumentation. Guild members are guided toward becoming more fluent in their oral expression and in dealing critically with controversial ideas. Intercollegiate tournaments enable the members to debate with other college students and to engage in some travel.

DILLARD PLAYERS GUILD

The Dillard Players opened this season with a production of Lorraine Hansberry's "Raisin in the Sun." This smash hit ran for five days, being held over. The leading roles of Mama, Walter and Ruth Younger were played by Albertine Powe, Charles Elloie ('61 and Sylvia Robinson, respectively. This moving portrayal of what happens to conflicting dreams won the D. U. Players critical acclaim.

The second production of the season was an adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion" which starred Gail Moore and Joseph Irby. Presented in the Studio Theater, it represented the first attempt at "theater in the round." Also held over, the stage had to serve as seating room on the final performance date.

Guild activities also included attendance of productions at Tulane, plans for staging "The Zoo Story" and "The Sand Box", representative of "theater of the absurd" and works of Dillard student-playwrights.

THE CHOIR

Officers: Carolyn Nicholas, Secretary; Kingsly Garrison, Vice President; Willie Scott, Business Manager; Carolyn Reed, Secretary; Earl Davis, President.

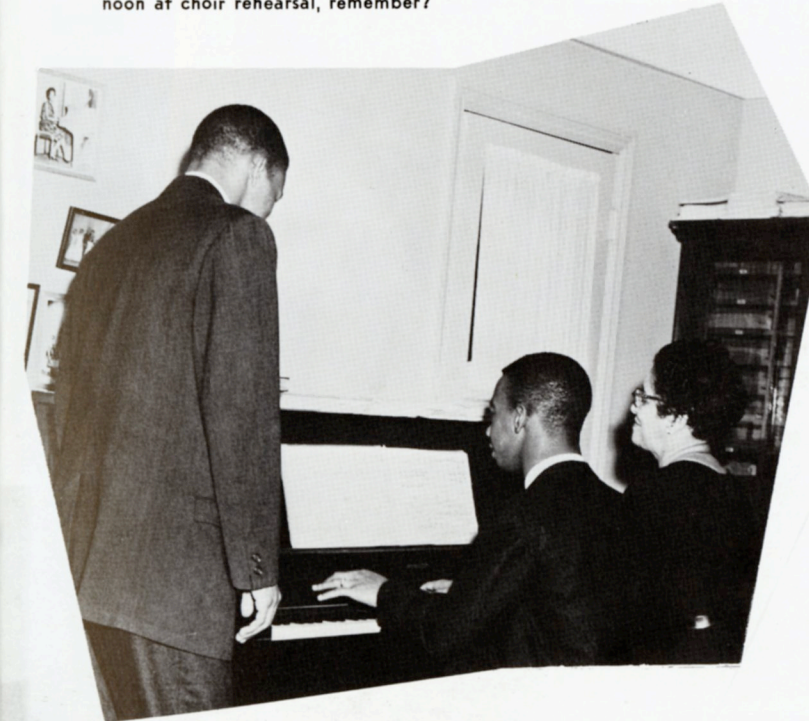

The Dillard Choir is composed of those persons interested in song as a means of expression, and the members enjoy working together in a spirit of co-operation and loyalty to do as serious a task as prepare to present a Handel Christmas Oratorio or light an endeavor as plan a display for Homecoming. Under the direction of Dr. Fred Hall, the choir sings weekly at Vesper and Chapel services, makes concert appearances and was heard via radio as part of the UNCF sponsored choral presentations from its member college choirs.

. . . AND LE DIABLE BLEU

When the inside of a photographer's studio all the way across town is frequented almost as much as Biology lab, or the yearbook dummy becomes my identification tag and staff members run from me and I from Mr. B., then there is hardly any alternative but to suppose that it's Yearbook deadline time. When you thumb through the pages, they may say much, but they hardly mirror a near ulcer, or inspirationless, nailless fingers taping a table top wishing they were around a moving pen.

I would speculate that the deadline has been stretched three times and Mr. B's patience thirty. The people at Marshall's Studio are hoping as hard as we that we hurry; those at the Benson Publishing Company are hoping harder. We earnestly appreciate all their assistance and that of everyone who helped to complete this LE DIABLE BLEU.

THE SENIOR CLASS

When we're not studying or working too hard, we're

OFF TO HAWAII, LEIS, AND POI.

ENGAGING IN A LITTLE TUG-OF-WAR, OR

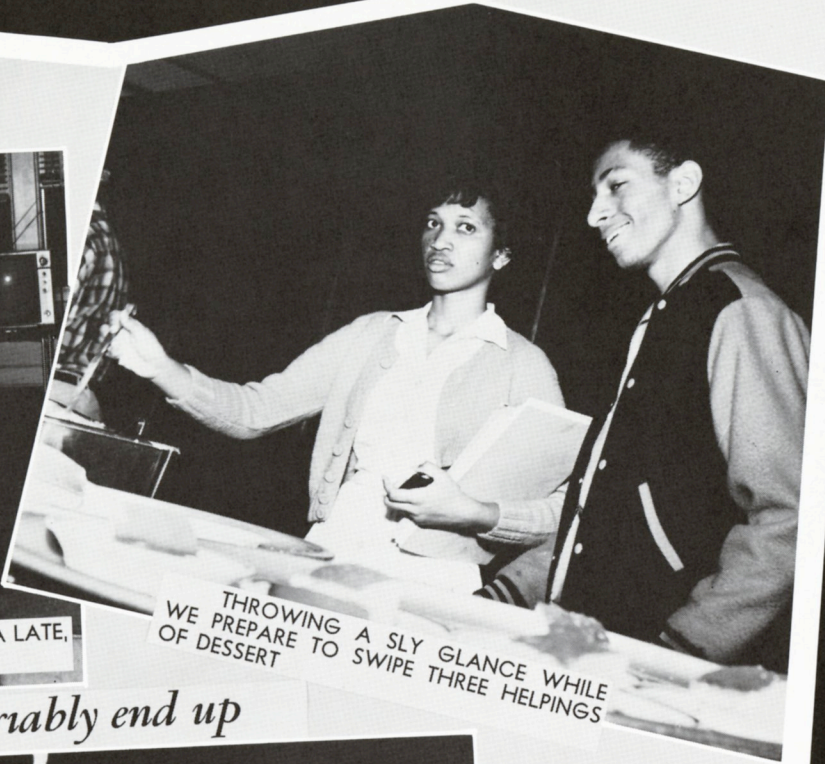

TALKING WITH NORMAN THOMAS, OR

GLARING ALL-SMILES AT OURSELVES IN MIRRORS, OR

WATCHING AL JOLSON AND A LATE, OLD, OLD MOVIE.

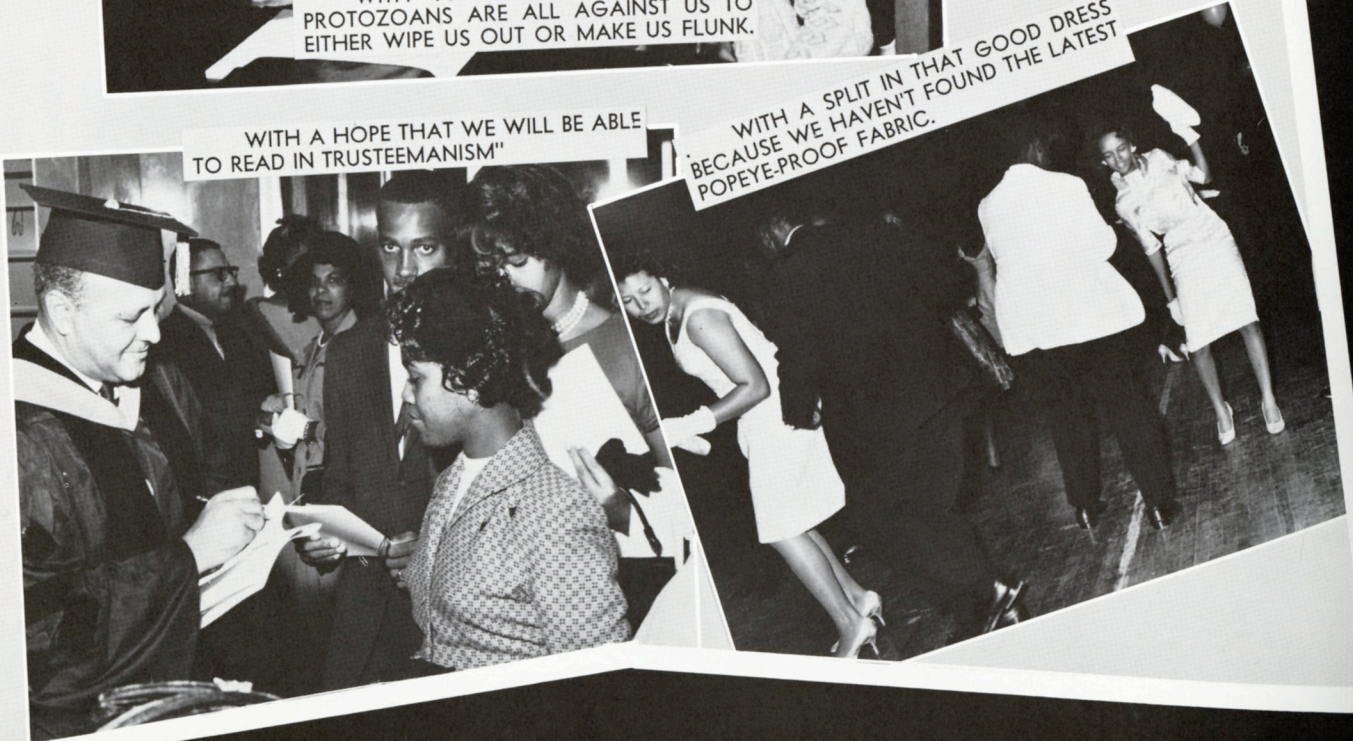

THROWING A SLY GLANCE WHILE WE PREPARE TO SWIPE THREE HELPINGS OF DESSERT

We invariably end up

WITH A RESOLUTION THAT THE PROTOZOANS ARE ALL AGAINST US TO EITHER WIPE US OUT OR MAKE US FLUNK.

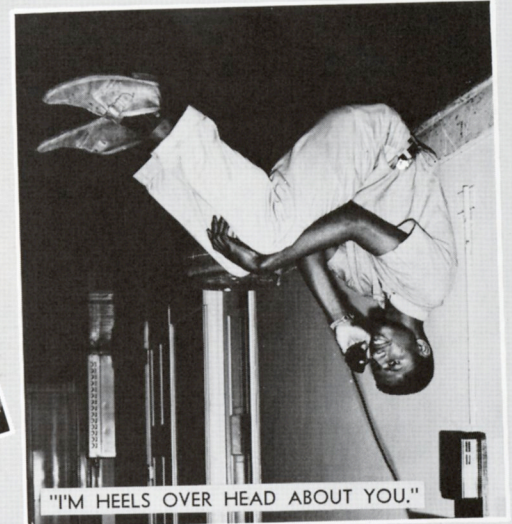

WITH A HOPE THAT WE WILL BE ABLE TO READ IN TRUSTEEMANISM"

WITH A SPLIT IN THAT GOOD DRESS BECAUSE WE HAVEN'T FOUND THE LATEST POPEYE-PROOF FABRIC.

"PRETEND THAT THAT ONE'S MY ALGEBRA TEACHER."

"I'M HEELS OVER HEAD ABOUT YOU."

uttering those famous words:

"WE'RE THE LAST OF THE 'RED HOT MAMMAS.'"

"I ENJOYED YOUR TALK ABOUT... UH."

"WE'RE GETTING A BAND, AT LAST."

"BON SOIR, MA PETITE, THE WATCHMAN BE UPON US."

AU REVOIR
